

City of Burlington By-law 46-2014

Description

A by-law approving the 2014 City of Burlington Development Charges. File: 460-01 (F-21-14)

Preamble

Whereas subsection 2(1) of the Development Charges Act, 1997 (the “Act”), S.O. 1997, c.27, as amended, provides that the council of a municipality may by by-law impose development charges against land to pay for increased capital costs required because of increased needs for services arising from development of the area to which the By-law applies;

And whereas a development charge background study, entitled “City of Burlington 2014 Development Charges Background Study” (the “Study”) prepared by Watson & Associates Economists Ltd. (“Watson”) and dated May 13, 2014 has been completed in support of the imposition of the development charges;

And whereas the Study and the proposed development charges by-law were made available to the public, the Council of the Corporation of the City of Burlington (the “Council”) gave notice to the public and held a public meeting through its Community and Corporate Services Committee on May 27, 2014 pursuant to section 12 of the Act and the regulations thereto, and Council and the Community and Corporate Services Committee received written submissions and heard comments and representations from all persons who asked to be heard;

And whereas on June 9, 2014, Council approved Finance Report F-21-14 thereby indicating that it intends that the increase in the need for services attributable to the anticipated development will be met;

And whereas at the meeting held on June 9, 2014, Council expressed its intention that development-related post 2031 mid-year capacity identified in the Study shall be paid for by development charges or other similar charges;

And whereas at the meeting held on June 9, 2014, Council approved the Study, as amended, and determined that no further public meetings were required under the Act.

Now therefore the Council of the Corporation of the City of Burlington hereby enacts as follows:

- 2. In this By-law where reference is made to a statute or a section of a statute such reference is deemed to be a reference to any amendments or successor legislation

Designation of Services

- 3. That it is hereby declared by Council that all development of land within the area to which this By-law applies will increase the need for services as set out in Section 5
- 4. The development charge applicable to a development as determined under this By-law shall apply without regard to the services required or used by a particular development.
- 5. Development Charges shall be imposed for the following categories of services to pay for the increased capital costs required because of increased needs for services arising from development:
 - (a) transportation
 - (b) storm drainage
 - (c) studies
 - (d) parks and recreation
 - (e) library

- (f) transit
- (g) fire

Application of By-law-Rules

6. For the purpose of complying with section 6 of the Act:
 - (a) the area to which this By-law applies shall be in the area described in section 7 of this By-law;
 - (b) the rules developed under paragraph 9 of subsection 5(1) of the Act for determining if development charges are payable under this By-law in any particular case;
 - (c) and for determining the amount of the charges shall be as set forth in sections 5 through 42, inclusive of this By-law
 - (d) the rules for exemptions, relief and adjustments shall be as set forth in section 18 through section 30 inclusive; the indexing of charges shall be in accordance with section 38 of this By-law and there shall be no phasing in as provided in section 31 of this By-law; and
 - (e) the rules with respect to the redevelopment of lands shall be in accordance with the rules set forth in sections 29 and 30 of this By-law

Area to which By-law Applies

7. Subject to section 8, this By-law applies to all lands in the geographic area of the City.
8. This By-law shall not apply to lands that are owned by and used for the purposes of:
 - (a) the City or a local board thereof
 - (b) a board as defined in subsection (a) of the Education Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. E.2
 - (c) the Regional Municipality of Halton or any local board thereof

Approvals for Development

9. Development charges shall be imposed upon all lands, buildings or structures that are developed for residential or non-residential uses if the development requires any of the following
 - (a) the passing of a zoning By-law or of an amendment to a zoning By-law under section 34 of the Planning Act;
 - (b) the approval of a minor variance under section 45 of the Planning Act;
 - (c) a conveyance of land to which a By-law passed under subsection 50(7) of the Planning Act applies;
 - (d) the approval of a plan of subdivision under section 51 of the Planning Act;
 - (e) a consent under section 53 of the Planning Act;
 - (f) the approval of a description under section 50 of the Condominium Act or s. 9 of the Condominium Act, 1998; or
 - (g) the issuance of a permit under the Building Code Act, 1992 in relation to a building or structure
10. No more than one development charge for each service designated in section 5 shall be imposed upon any lands or buildings to which the By-law applies even though two or more of the actions described in section 9 are required before the lands or buildings can be developed
11. Notwithstanding sections 10, 32 and 33, if
 - (a) two or more of the actions described in section 9 occur at different times; or
 - (b) a second or subsequent building permit is issuedresulting in increased, additional or different development, then additional development charges shall be imposed in respect of such increased, additional or different development permitted by that action or permit
12. Where a development requires an approval described in section 9 after the issuance of a building permit and no development charges have been paid, then the development charge shall be paid prior to the granting of the approval required under section 9 of this By-law.

13. If a development does not require a building permit but does require one or more of the approvals described in section 9, then notwithstanding sections 32 and 33, development charges shall nonetheless be payable.
14. Nothing in this By-law prevents Council from requiring in an agreement under section 51, or as a condition of consent or an agreement respecting same under section 53 of the Planning Act, that the owner, at his or her own expense, shall install such local services related to or within a plan of subdivision, as council may require in accordance with the City's applicable local services policies in effect at that time, or that the owner pay for local connections to water mains, sanitary sewers and/or storm drainage facilities installed at the owners' expense, including administrative, processing, or inspection fees.

Calculation of Development Charges

15. The development charge with respect to the development of any land, buildings or structures shall be calculated as follows:
 - (a) in the case of residential development, including a dwelling unit accessory to a non-residential use or the residential portion of a mixed-use development, based upon the number and type of dwelling units; or
 - (b) in the case of non-residential development, or the non-residential portion of a mixed-use development, based upon the total floor area of such development

Residential Development Charges.

16. Development charges as described in Schedule A, shall be imposed upon residential uses of lands, buildings or structures, including a residential dwelling unit accessory to a non-residential use, and in the case of a mixed-use building or structure upon the residential component of the mixed-use building or structure.

Non-Residential Development Charges

17. Development charges, as described in Schedule B, shall be imposed upon non-residential uses of lands, buildings or structures, and in the case of a mixed-use building, upon the non-residential uses of the mixed-use building or structure.

Rules with Respect to Exemptions from Intensification of Existing Housing

- (a) This By-law does not apply with respect to approvals related to residential development or redevelopment of land, buildings or structures that would have the affect only
 - (i) of permitting the enlargement of an existing dwelling unit;
 - (ii) of creating one or two additional dwelling units in an existing single detached dwelling unit; or
 - (iii) of creating one additional dwelling unit in any other existing residential building.
- (b) Notwithstanding subsection 18(a)(ii), development charges shall be imposed in accordance with section 16 if the total floor area of the additional one or two dwelling units in the single detached dwelling exceeds the total floor area of the dwelling unit already in the building
- (c) Notwithstanding subsection 18(a)(iii), development charges shall be imposed in accordance with subsection 16 if the additional dwelling unit has a total floor area greater than
 - (i) in the case of a semi-detached or row dwelling, the total floor area of the dwelling unit already in the building; and
 - (ii) in the case of any other residential building, the total floor area of the smallest dwelling unit already in the building

Rules with respect to Industrial Expansion Exemption

19. That if development includes the enlargement of the total floor area of an existing industrial building, the amount of the development charges that is payable is the following:
- (a) if the total floor area is enlarged by fifty percent (50%) or less, the amount of the development charges in respect of the enlargement is zero; or
 - (b) if the total floor area is enlarged by more than fifty percent (50%), development charges are payable on the amount by which the enlargement exceeds fifty percent (50%) of the total floor area before the enlargement
20. For the purpose of section 19, the term “existing industrial building” shall have the same meaning as the term has in O. Reg. 82/98 made under the Act.
21. That for the purpose of interpreting the definition of “existing industrial building” contained in O.Reg. 82/98 made under the Act and as referenced in section 20, regard shall be had for the classification of the lands in question pursuant to the Assessment Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. A.31, and in particular:

- (a) whether the lands fall within a tax class such that taxes on the lands are payable at the industrial tax rate; and
 - (b) whether more than fifty percent (50%) of the total floor area of the building has an industrial property code for assessment purposes
22. Despite section 21, distribution centers, warehouses, buildings used for the bulk storage of goods and truck terminals shall be considered industrial buildings. For the purposes of this by-law, self-storage facilities are not considered to be industrial buildings.
23. For greater certainty in applying the exemption set out in sections 19, 20, 21 and 22, the total floor area of an existing industrial building is enlarged where there is a bona fide increase in the size of the existing industrial building, and the enlarged area is attached to the existing industrial building and is used for or in connection with an industrial purpose as set out in subsection 1(1) of O. Reg. 82/98 made under the Act. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the exemption in this section shall not apply where the enlarged area is attached to the existing industrial building by means only of a tunnel, bridge, canopy, corridor or other passage-way, or through a shared below-grade connection such as a service tunnel, foundation, footing or a parking facility.

Lot Coverage Relief

24. Where there is a non-residential development, the development charges otherwise payable pursuant to section 17 shall be calculated in accordance with the following:
- (a) for the portion of the total floor area of such development that is less than or equal to one (1.0) times the area of the lot or block, the non-residential development charges under this By-law apply; and
 - (b) for the portion of the total floor area of such development that is greater than one (1.0) times the area of the lot or block, non-residential development charges shall not apply.

Other Exemptions

25. Notwithstanding section 17, development charges shall not apply to lands, buildings or structures used or to be used for the purposes of:
- (a) a hospital, excluding any portion of the lands, buildings or structures occupied by a tenant of the hospital;
 - (b) a place of worship;

- (c) a conservation authority, unless such buildings or structures are used primarily for or in connection with (i) recreational purposes for which the conservation authority charges admission and/or fees, or (ii) any retail purposes;
- (d) seasonal structures;
- (e) agricultural uses; and
- (f) temporary venues.

Rules with respect to Temporary Buildings

26. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this By-law, a temporary building or structure shall be exempt from the payment of development charges provided that:

- (a) prior to the issuance of the building permit for the building, the owner shall provide to the City securities in the form of cash or a letter of credit acceptable to the City's Director of Finance in the full amount of the development charges otherwise payable pursuant to this By-law; and
- (b) within three (3) years of building permit issuance, the owner shall provide to the City evidence, to the City's satisfaction, that the temporary building or structure has been demolished or removed from the lands, whereupon the City shall return to the owner the securities provided pursuant to subsection 26(a), without interest.

27. In the event that the owner does not provide satisfactory evidence of the demolition or removal of the temporary building or structure in accordance with subsection 26(b), the building or structure will be deemed not to be a temporary structure and the City shall transfer the amount secured pursuant to subsection 26(a) into the appropriate development charges reserve funds in payment of the development charges applicable to the building without further notification to the owner.

28. The timely provision of satisfactory evidence of the demolition or removal of the temporary building or structure in accordance with subsection 26(b) shall be solely the owner's responsibility.

Rules with respect to the Redevelopment of Land - Demolition

29. That in the case of a demolition of all or part of a building or structure:

- (a) a credit shall be allowed against the development charges otherwise payable pursuant to this By-law, provided that where a demolition permit for a residential building or structure has been issued and has not been revoked:

- (i) on or before June 30, 2009, a building permit has been issued for the redevelopment within ten (10) years from the date the demolition permit was issued for a residential building or structure; and
 - (ii) on or after July 1, 2009, a building permit has been issued for the redevelopment within five (5) years from the date the demolition permit was issued for a residential building or structure.
- (b) a credit shall be allowed against the development charges otherwise payable pursuant to this By-law, provided that a demolition permit has been issued for a non-residential building or structure and has not been revoked
- (c) the credit shall be calculated based on the portion of the building or structure used for a residential purpose that has been demolished by multiplying the number and type of dwelling units demolished, or in the case of a building used for a non-residential purpose that has been demolished by multiplying the non-residential total floor area demolished, by the relevant development charges under this By-law in effect on the date when the development charges are payable pursuant to this By-law with respect to the redevelopment;
- (d) no credit shall be allowed where the demolished building or structure or part thereof would have been exempt pursuant to this By-law; and
- (e) where the amount of any credit pursuant to this section exceeds, in total, the amount of the development charges otherwise payable under this By-law with respect to the redevelopment, the excess credit shall be reduced to zero and shall not be carried forward unless the carrying forward of such excess credit is expressly permitted by a phasing plan for the redevelopment that is acceptable to the Director of Finance or equivalent.

Rules with respect to the Redevelopment of Land – Conversions

30. That in the case of a conversion of all or part of a building or structure

- (a) a credit shall be allowed against the development charges otherwise payable under this By-law;
- (b) the credit shall be calculated based on the portion of the building or structure that is being converted by multiplying the number and type of dwelling units being converted or the non-residential total floor area being converted by the relevant development charges under this By-law in effect on the date when the development charges are payable pursuant to this By-law with respect to the redevelopment;

- (c) no credit shall be allowed where the building or structure or part thereof prior to conversion would have been exempt pursuant to this By-law; and
- (d) where the amount of any credit pursuant to this section exceeds, in total, the amount of the development charges otherwise payable under this By-law with respect to the redevelopment, the excess credit shall be reduced to zero and shall not be carried forward unless the carrying forward of such excess credit is expressly permitted by a phasing plan for the redevelopment that is acceptable to the Director of Finance or equivalent.

Phase-In of Development Charges

31. The development charges imposed pursuant to this By-law are not being phased-in and are payable in full, subject to the exemptions and credits herein, from the effective date of this By-law

Payment of Development Charges

32. Development charges, adjusted in accordance with section 38 of this By-law to the date of payment, are payable at the following times:

- (a) Charges imposed under section 16 in relation to residential use are payable on the date that the first building permit approving the construction of a foundation is issued; and
- (b) Charges imposed under section 17 in relation to non-residential use and retail use are payable on the date that the first building permit approving the construction of a foundation is issued

33. The City may require, and where so required, an owner shall enter into an agreement, including the provision of security for the owner's obligations under agreement pursuant to section 27 of the Act providing for all or part of a development charge to be paid before or after it otherwise would be payable. The terms of such agreement shall then prevail over the provisions of this By-law.

34. In the alternative to payment by means provided in subsection 32(a) or (b), the City may, by an agreement entered into with the owner, accept the provision of services in full or partial satisfaction of the development charge otherwise payable provided that:

- (a) if the City and the owner cannot agree as to the reasonable cost of doing the work under section 33, the dispute shall be referred to Council for decision; and
- (b) if the credit exceeds the amount of the charge for the service to which the work relates:

The Corporation of the City of Burlington By-law 46-2014

- (i) the excess amount shall not be credited against the charge for any other service, unless the City has so agreed under section 38 of the Act; and
- (ii) in no event shall the City be required to make a cash payment to the credit holder

Interest

35. The City shall pay interest on a refund under subsection 18(3), 25(2) and section 36 of the Development Charges Act, 1997 at a rate equal to the Bank of Canada rate on the date the By-law comes into force

Unpaid Development Charges

- 36. If development charges, or any part thereof, remain unpaid after the due date, the amount unpaid shall be added to the tax roll and shall be collected as taxes
- 37. If any unpaid development charges are collected as taxes in accordance with section 36, the monies so collected shall be credited to the appropriate development charge reserve fund

Indexing

38. Development charges imposed pursuant to this By-law, shall be adjusted without amendment to this by-law, commencing on the first day of April in the year following enactment of this by-law and annually thereafter, in accordance with the Statistics Canada Quarterly, Construction Price Statistics (catalogue number 62-007)
