COMPLETE COMMUNITIES

Complete communities meet people’s needs for daily living throughout an entire lifetime by providing convenient access to an appropriate mix of jobs, local services, a full range of housing and public service facilities including affordable housing, schools, recreation and open space for their residents. Culture and community activities thrive, creating a positive sense of place, inclusivity and community. Convenient access to public transportation and options for active transportation are also provided.

Broadly, the policies of this Plan aim to provide a wide range of opportunities to accommodate jobs and housing. A successful and complete community must also provide residents with access to a range of services and facilities that will satisfy health, education, social, religious and recreation needs. Several key elements of a complete community, such as housing, public service facilities and institutional uses, parks, cultural resources and cultural heritage resources, are addressed by the policies of this chapter; however the entire Plan is intended to work together to deliver the elements of a complete community.

3.1 HOUSING

Housing is fundamental to the social, economic and physical well-being of the city’s residents and neighbourhoods. The City will promote an appropriate and adequate range of housing choices by type, tenure and affordability level, to accommodate the needs of all city residents and workers, regardless of age, income level, physical, sensory and mental health and ability, culture, level of support services, household structure and family composition.
