3) We have a question to ask you...

Now that the City of Burlington and the community have finished our 25-year strategic plan that outlines the vision for Burlington's future, we are ready to make it happen.

In the coming months, you will hear more about the city's Official Plan, which determines where and how the city will grow, and the Transportation Master Plan, that helps us plan how we move around Burlington.

As we get to work on city-building, we would like your help in choosing the phrase which best represents the spirit of the 25-year plan. Both phrases aim to tell the story of how Burlington is determined to move forward in a progressive and unprecedented way. Follow this link to watch a brief video and complete a quick 2 question survey!
