EVERYONE'S INVITED!

Join me to chat, play, and enjoy the last few days of summer at Thorpe Park.

While having fun and keeping active at the park, I will be available to speak with you about what matters in our City. It's important to connect on some of the upcoming happenings, including the budget, planning, and new engagement opportunities.

Enjoy an interactive morning with:

- Active Parents' family-focused activities
- BurlingtonGreen's eco-friendly alternatives and tips to make this school year as low-impact as possible
- City Planning Staff will be looking for your thoughts about the "Taking a Closer Look at the Downtown" project.
